What: Discounted rates to celebrate Supreme Court Ruling
When: Now through October 2008
Where: Haas-Lilienthal House, 2007 Franklin St., San Francisco

June 16, 2008 (San Francisco, CA) - In celebration of the recent Supreme Court ruling on same-sex marriages, San Francisco Architectural Heritage is offering discounted rates for all weddings and receptions at the Haas-Lilienthal House through the end of October 2008.

Built in 1886, the House is a Queen Anne Victorian operated as a museum and a special event facility. This registered San Francisco Landmark is the perfect venue to celebrate a landmark decision. It offers a beautiful, warm and unique setting for family and friends to gather and enjoy your special day and this historic time in California.

The House can accommodate up to 90 for a seated meal. For a larger guest list, a standing reception is an attractive option. A list of preferred caterers and vendors make planning your event a stress-free activity.

The Haas-Lilienthal House is owned and operated by San Francisco Architectural Heritage, a non-profit, member-supported organization whose mission is to develop and maintain a public appreciation and understanding of the cultural, aesthetic and economic value of San Francisco's architecturally and historically significant structures and districts, and to be an effective force in motivating public and private action to preserve and protect these resources.

For venue pricing, available dates, or any additional information, please call 415-441-3000, x14, or visit the website at:
